STUDENT IMPACT ............................................................................................ 19
Oklahoma State University takes acts of sexual violence extremely seriously and believes that 1 victim is 2 many. The university invites all members of the campus community to be part of the effort to maintain a safe and productive environment in which to live, learn, and be successful by committing to end sexual violence. It is important for members of our community to understand and receive consent, intervene by being an active bystander, and support victims of sexual violence.

The 1 is 2 Many program at Oklahoma State University aims to reduce the incidents of sexual violence at Oklahoma State University through on- and off-campus collaborations, student leadership initiatives, social norming campaigns, and prevention education opportunities that raise awareness by promoting effective consent, teaching intervention techniques, reframing the campus culture, and supporting victims.

1 is 2 Many is a part of Student Support and Conduct and is overseen by one full time coordinator, with assistance from a Graduate Teaching Assistant for 20 hours per week.

STUDENT INVOLVEMENT

PREVENTION AMBASSADORS

Prevention Ambassadors are a group of students who meet once a month to discuss sexual violence trends and work toward creating a culture of consent and care on campus. Prevention Ambassadors assisted in creating and implementing programming that is culturally relevant and campus specific. Students volunteered at 1 is 2 Many events, assisted with marketing, and contributed to the overall momentum of 1 is 2 Many by serving as advocates for change across campus. This was the first year of the Prevention Ambassador group and there were about 10 students consistently engaged and involved throughout the academic year.

NEW STUDENT ONLINE TRAINING

Oklahoma State University prides itself on providing an enlightening college experience, which demands a safe and healthy student environment. All new students were required to complete online training, an interactive video-based program which provides critical information about sexual violence prevention, cybersecurity, and mental health awareness. Students must complete the training before enrolling in courses for the following semester.

Objectives:
- Participants will gain a better understanding of consent, rape culture, bystander intervention, alcohol, dating/domestic violence, healthy relationships, sexual harassment, and stalking as they contribute to sexual violence.
- Participants will experience an attitude change contributing to the prevention of sexual violence.
- Participants will become aware of the resources and reporting options available on and off campus.

Total Completions: 11,688
This 30-minute interactive, in-person training focused on consent, sexual violence prevalence and attitudes, survivor support, bystander intervention, and compliance as mandated by the NCAA. The training was facilitated by the 1 is 2 Many Coordinator and the Assistant Director for Student Conduct. Approximately 570 student athletes were trained between August 4 and September 7 in Fall 2023.

Objectives:

- Intercollegiate athletics departments are fully knowledgeable about, integrated in, and compliant with, institutional policies and processes regarding sexual violence prevention and proper adjudication and resolution of acts of sexual violence.
- The institutional policies and processes regarding sexual violence prevention and adjudication, and the name and contact information for the campus Title IX coordinator, are readily available within the department of athletics.
- All student athletes, coaches, and staff have been educated on sexual violence prevention, intervention, and response, to the extent allowable by state law and collective bargaining agreements.
TRAININGS

HOUSING AND RESIDENTIAL LIFE

COMMUNITY MENTORS
This 1-hour training covered minimum information necessary for the staff to feel confident as they appropriately act toward prevention, response, support for students, culture change, and application to position. The training was required by all Community Mentors; approximately 150 students attended and received training.

Objectives:
- Student staff members will know the appropriate response to, and reporting requirements for, incidents of sexual violence.
- Student staff members will understand the basics of prevention education to aid in culture change within their living communities.
- Student staff members will understand how to support a student that discloses sexual violence.
- Student staff members will be able to apply training content directly to their position as a Community Mentor.

PREPARE TO PROGRAM (RESIDENCE HALL ASSOCIATION)
This 1-hour training engaged student programming board members to think about the ways they communicate with one another and set appropriate boundaries with friends and colleagues. Participants engaged in activities to demonstrate the importance of effective communication and boundary setting. Approximately 130 students attended the workshop in two separate groups.

Students were invited to the Spring Break Field Day to learn tips on how to stay safe during Spring Break. Campus and community partners worked together to host a free mocktail bar, drunk goggle demonstrations, auto safety education, drug and alcohol resources, and much more, all showcased in a field day style format. A pre- and post-assessment showed that the event significantly improved students’ confidence and skills in recognizing and intervening in alcohol/drug overdose and sexual assault situations and enhanced their understanding of safe sex practices and safety planning.
SEXUAL ASSAULT AWARENESS MONTH

BANNER-MAKING

1 is 2 Many invited organizations across campus to participate in banner making as part of Sexual Assault Awareness Month. 27 organizations participated, with 116 attending the banner-painting event. The banners were displayed in the atrium of the Student Union for the entire month of April. Greek houses also participated in creating banners and hanging them throughout the Greek neighborhood.
SEXUAL ASSAULT AWARENESS MONTH

WHAT WERE YOU WEARING? EXHIBIT

1 is 2 Many, in partnership with Iowa Tribe Victim Services Unit, hosted the What Were You Wearing? Display in the basement of the Student Union during the week of Denim Day in April. This thought-provoking exhibit invited members of the OSU community to view stories of survivors, which challenged their assumptions about victimizations, expanded knowledge about sexual violence, and validated experiences of survivors. Attendees were also invited to leave encouraging and validating messages for survivors on a poster board, which individuals could take as needed. 173 participants were tracked as viewing the exhibit, with many more that viewed the exhibit when the check-in table was not set up and active.
Denim Day, which occurred on April 24, provided the campus community with a time to reflect on their beliefs about victims of sexual assault and share what Denim Day means to them. Using two different locations, students and staff stopped by to share why they wear denim - they also received a button, denim ribbon, or cup.

OTHER INITIATIVES

INTERFRATERNITY COUNCIL (IFC) POLICIES
In collaboration with the current IFC president, 1 is 2 Many worked to create policies for overnight/destination events for Greek chapters. These policies were formed in response to sexual assaults that take place at such events and aim to reduce the risks that contribute to environments where sexual assaults may occur. Examples of these policies include prohibiting alcohol to and from the event, securing extra hotel rooms, and creating risk management documents such as guest lists and emergency plans.

OPPORTUNITY ORANGE SCHOLARS CURRICULUM
Opportunity Orange Scholars, a program for OSU students with intellectual or developmental disabilities, collaborated with 1 is 2 Many to adapt and form a curriculum and training plan about sexuality education for participants. By securing certification training for 1 is 2 Many Coordinator, a curriculum plan tailored to the specific population was created and will be implemented in the 24-25 academic year.

WAKE UP WITH WELLNESS VIDEO
The Coordinator for 1 is 2 Many participated in a “Wake Up with Wellness” how-to video about reporting sexual violence and supporting a survivor, which was shared by the Department of Wellness on their social media.
MARKETING

SPICES & SEASONINGS - PETE’S PANTRY
Showcasing different educational pieces, 1 is 2 Many sponsored different spices and seasonings available for students to take from Pete’s Pantry. Approximately 800 spices were purchased and they were all taken from the pantry within 4 months.

RESOURCE MAGNETS
1 is 2 Many dispersed approximately 5000 magnets into residence halls with reporting and support resources through a partnership with Housing and Residence Life.

GREEN FLAGS CAMPAIGN
1 is 2 Many collected information from OSU couples about what makes their relationship healthy, and then posted on social media to showcase “Green Flags.”
COLLABORATIONS

1 is 2 Many is proud to partner with many campus and community groups to host programming, collaborate on projects, and provide support to students.
STUDENT IMPACT

“1 is 2 Many has impacted me by allowing me the opportunity to serve and advocate for my peers on campus, and I feel I have been able to connect with and support students who have experienced difficult times during their college years. I am a better leader, listener, friend, and advocate because of 1 is 2 Many!”

Student Victim Advocate

“The 1 is 2 Many program has been my saving grace. After going through the unimaginable, being left alone, scared and confused, 1 is 2 Many showed me that it would get better one day. They were my supporters and gave me a sense of safety. They made me feel heard, valued and respected. They always listened to me, no matter what. I truly do not know where I would be if it weren’t for the 1 is 2 Many program. I wish more students were aware of how much impact there is behind the program.”

Student Survivor

“One is 2 Many has had an everlasting impact on me. This organization came into my life when I needed it the most. Without 1 is 2 Many, I’d most likely still be in an abusive relationship. Being a part of 1 is 2 Many gave me the confidence and support I needed to remove myself from a relationship that was detrimental to my health. Now I get to spread awareness regarding sexual and domestic violence and help others who are in the same situation I was in. From tabling to hosting events, 1 is 2 Many allows me to make an impact on campus and spread awareness.”

Prevention Ambassador and Student Survivor
